One of my favorite authorsBy Johnna W.It wasn't quite like his other books, you could hardly call it a fairy tale but it was fantastic. This is the book that inspired C. S. Lewis's Prince Caspian from the Chronicles of Narnia.

Of old there was a land which was so much a woodland that a minstrel thereof said it that a squirrel might go from end to end and all about from tree to tree and never touch the earth: therefore was that land called Oakenrealm.

About the AuthorEnglish artist, writer and socialist activist, William Morris was also the pioneer of Socialist Movement in Britain. He presented visionary philosophies about the outcome of socialist movement.
